

Job Title: Humanities Ambassador

Role Start Date: November 2024

Role Duration: 12 months

Job Description:

Humanities Ambassadors at The Bulwell Academy are responsible for promoting Humanities subjects across the school and should present a positive image of the Humanities Faculty.

Humanities Ambassadors are required to be inclusive, proactive, committed, respectful and enthusiastic in their role. They should be a positive role model amongst their peers

Key Roles and Responsibilities:

- Work with the Humanities department to promote subjects within the faculty at whole school events including open evening and options evening.
- Lead the development of a Humanities news reel. The individual ambassadors may focus on current geographical events or reminding the school community of significant events in History or focusing on events linked to the Travel and Tourism Industry.
- Work with the Humanities department to develop engaging resources that can be used with primary school students at our feeder schools.
- Work closely with the Humanities department by giving feedback that will help improve the learning experience for students across Humanities subjects. This would include attending meetings, brainstorming ideas and contributing positively to discussions.

Expectations and Requirements:

- Humanities Ambassadors are role models within the school and must always demonstrate their best.
- Humanities Ambassadors are expected to demonstrate the school values of Aspire, Work Hard and Be Kind at all times.
- Humanities Ambassadors should meet all uniform expectations.
- Humanities Ambassadors should have excellent attendance and punctuality to lessons.
- Humanities Ambassadors must show a high level of effort in lessons.
- Humanities Ambassadors should be approachable, polite and dedicated to promoting an inclusive and supportive student community.
