

Technology ambassador job description

Your role:

Art: To develop a greater interest in the Arts across the academy and help promote the benefits of creative pursuits

D&T and Food: To help plan and support the development of the new food curriculum and develop a greater awareness of Design and Technology to build on practical skills in the workshop.

Job Description, Roles and responsibilities

Art:

To support with visibility and promotion of the Arts subjects across the academy.

To help with clubs, activities, exhibitions and competitions as necessary.

To support the department at options events, open evenings and other school functions.

To help develop wall displays for classrooms that will aid KS3 learning (colour wheel, art movement

To give honest student feedback on current curriculum/projects and help produce WAGOLL examples.

Design and Food:

Our first job is to develop a new Food curriculum for 2025. You will be involved in the menu, cooking and promotional activities. This will involve being involved with open evenings and afterschool functions.